

CATEGORIES

Advertising

Branding Cinema CRM CSI Design Digital Direct Marketing Education & Training Events & Conferencing Exhibitions Magazines Marketing Media Mobile Newspapers

Out of Home PR & Comr

Online Media

Printing Production Promotions Publishing Radio Recruitment Research Retail Sales Social Media Sponsorship Youth Marketing

SPECIAL FOCUS

Digital Marketing Content Marketing

RADIO SHOWS

Biz Takeouts Show

PARTNERS

Bookmarks Design Indaba

SPECIAL SECTIONS

Loeries Creative Week Media freedom/R2K Trends Prism Mandela Day Women's Month

IN THE NEWS

PR & COMMUNICATIONS NEWS

21 Icons Season 3 to feature Jessica Foord

10 SEP 2015 12:44

"Don't let something like this damage you. I haven't let what happened to me define me. I've let it help me in my future. It's taken me on a different path, but I haven't let it destroy me. I've let it empower me." - Jes Foord.

On 13 September 2015 at 7:27pm on SABC3, the short-film series 21 ICONS will feature the second icon of its third season: rape survivor and founder of The Jes Foord Foundation (JFF), Jes Foord,

21 ICONS traces South Africa's history over the course of its three seasons, moving from the fight for freedom to the country's growth during democracy, and concluding with a vision of the future. 21 ICONS is a celebration of individuals who inspire multitudes through their impact, integrity and influence

This season has been envisaged as a tribute to the country's future, shedding the spotlight on youth icons all under the age of 35. Their energy and drive has been captured in coloured portraits; a major departure from previous seasons which featured black-and-white fine arts portraits.

Foord has been selected for 21 ICONS South Africa Season III to honour her courage and bravery following her traumatic gang rape by four men in 2008. Her story is both moving and inspirational and demonstrates the strength of purpose in the face of adversity and that human beings can make the best of their situation if they are able to surpass adversity and strive to be the best version of themselves. She's a testament to the human spirit that we can overcome suffering and achieve greatness.

During a portrait sitting. Foord describes how she resolved to speak out rather than hide away in shame and how she chose to transform her appallingly negative experience into a positive one with the establishment of JFF. She formed the Foundation to help restore lives after rape by way of a number of initiatives and activities designed to change rape victims into rape survivors. She intends to educate the public and help them realise that there is life after rape.

Sunday Combo Community

more options

of Sunday (newspaper) readers are reading an ads24title

(either paper or online).

Now that you've focused on the facts, contact your Ads24 Media Executive to benefit from our Sunday Reader Communities

RELATED

[21 Icons Season 3] Athi-Patra Ruga

21 ICONS season 3 celebrates the future of a nation

21 Icons season three to feature Athi-Patra Ruga

21 ICONS documentary a contender at Zanzibar International Film Festival

Silent auction of 21 ICONS runs until

[21 Icons - Season 2] Sandra Prinsloo

MORE ARTICLES SUBMIT NEWS

TOP STORIES

Instagram scandal: Grove on 'unpaid leave', Cape Town Partnership boss speaks out GRAHAM VAN DER MADE

What SA thinks of the new Google logo

MOST Awards 2015: All the winners

MORE TOP STORIES ... SUBMIT NEWS

BUSINESS

LinkedIn is the new business card

Choosing your business' fiscal year

