21 ICONS SEASON THREE (THE FUTURE OF A NATION) FEATURES THULANI MADONDO

Share  Share  Tweet

Thulani Madondo? "People need to be reminded that they are powerful and they can still achieve whatever they want to achieve, because at the end of the day you are what you think you are."

On 20 September 2015 on SABC 3 at 19h27, the acclaimed short-film series 21 ICONS will feature the third icon of its third season: co-founder and current executive director of the Kiptown Youth Program (KYP), Thulani Madondo.

21 ICONS traces South Africa's history over the course of its three seasons, moving from the fight for freedom to the country's growth during democracy, and concluding with a vision of the future. 21 ICONS is a celebration of individuals who inspire multitudes through their impact, integrity and influence.

As a world-class communicator of powerful stories, 21 ICONS uses photography, film and narrative to showcase the pivotal moments of South Africa's nation-building journey.

Gary van Wyk (34) will step up as principal photographer for the third season. In previous seasons, Van Wyk has been a crucial part of 21 ICONS camera work, visually recording the nuances and intimate moments of each shoot in his distinctive reporting style. Adrian Steirn, who conceived the project, continues his involvement capturing the behind-the-scenes images.

This season has been envisaged as a tribute to the country's future, shedding the spotlight on youth icons all under the age of 35. Their energy and drive has been captured in coloured portraits; a major departure from previous seasons which featured black-and-white fine arts portraits.

Madondo has been selected for 21 ICONS South Africa Season III to demonstrate active citizenry is characteristic of true heroes. He uses his own life story to inspire individuals from disadvantaged backgrounds to follow in his footsteps by highlighting the potential and possibility of what can be achieved when an individual focuses their attention on furthering their education. Madondo's selfless efforts to provide social outreach and upliftment for his community have earned him several humanitarian accolades. He stands as an example of how tenacity and determination can overcome great odds.

During a portrait sitting, Madondo tells Van Wyk how he stayed in a one-room corrugated shack in Kliptown, an informal settlement in Soweto with a population of 45 000, where he shared the space with seven siblings and his mother without electricity or running water, so he understands the challenges facing the youth in this area. He recognised from a young age that in order to break the poverty cycle he needed to do whatever he could to put himself through school financially, and so he washed cars and traded with spaza shop owners by sourcing products in bulk for re-sale.

The film gives an insightful and inspiring glimpse into Madondo's life, his work as social entrepreneur, humanitarian and education activist who provides extracurricular support to less fortunate children from the Kliptown community. One of the programmes on offer is the performance of gumboot dancing to a global audience.

For the portrait 'Africa Rising', which will appear on the same day that his short-film is released, Van Wyk describes the visual elements, "Madondo is photographed in Mandela Park, a township in Cape Town's Hout Bay. Wearing the gumboots that he uses to teach local

(http://sacreativenetwork.co.za/wp-content/uploads/2015/09/DSC\_3103.jpg)

On the future of South Africa, he comments, “I want the world to know that South Africa is the Promised Land because it is so rich in its diversity. The spirit of ‘Ubuntu’ really exists. We shouldn’t doubt and underestimate ourselves while overestimating other people. That’s the worst mistake we (can) make.”

PROGRAMME SYNOPSIS

Community activist Thulani Madondo talks to photographer Gary Van Wyk at a township in Cape Town about the importance of empowering our youth. As the co-founder of the Kliptown Youth Program he describes the importance of providing opportunities that will enable young people to rise out of poverty. One of the programmes on offer is the performance of gumboot dancing to a global audience.

"We're still very shy to host uncomfortable conversations". This is a key problem indeed. Movie looks promising.
