

Men on the move

The second installation of 21 Icons South Africa was launched this week at the Women's Jail at Constitution Hill. Photographer and film maker Adrian Steirn (left) presided over the formalities and chatted to businessman Herman Mashaba (right). In attendance were Swazi Dlamini and Shaka Sisulu, grandchildren of struggle icons Nelson Mandela and Walter Sisulu, respectively

TV show The Man Cave was launched on Thursday at Chaf Pozi in Orlando, Soweto. Presenters Janez Vermeiren and Lunga Shabalala, along with a few brave guests, bungee jumped from the famous Orlando Towers. The show, created by men for men, starts on Wednesday night on SABC3

PHOTOS: LUCKY NXUMALO