

“ I NEVER LOOK
TO OTHERS for help. I just like to be myself, to live my life
the way I want to live.

COURTING ADMIRATION

A triple amputee following a train accident, Lucas Sithole is South Africa's most successful wheelchair tennis player. He is currently ranked No 4 in the world and is the first African to win a Quad Grand Slam title. In July this year the inspirational sportsman, who has risen above numerous challenges, claimed his second British Open quad singles title. ➤
